3. Because of a series of complications, [REDACTED] has not been able to receive as much briefing from [REDACTED] as I had hoped. He will sit in on several candidate and polygraph interviews Thursday and Friday.

25X1A9a

4. [REDACTED] has made a study of recent internal candidates who he has seen since 1 July in comparison with those who have been selected for the last two classes. The indications are that some 10 or 12 in the current group will be of at least equal quality as their predecessors. Not all of these candidates have completed their medical and security check. So, we are still not able to predict how many will be selected.

25X1A9a

5. Plans are being developed to provide full headquarters training for the July 1964 Class of [REDACTED] in the Broyhill Building. This will involve dividing the groups into two sections and inverting the officers of SIC and ITC with the possibility of a one week DDP orientation program. It is also hoped that the first week's orientation can be
